TO STATE BANK
NOW RENEWED*Palatine Scouts
Will Canvass Town
For NRA Pledges

A drive to get all Palatine people to sign the NRA consumer's pledge will begin next week, with local Boy Scouts canvassing the town to obtain the signatures. A. H. Schmidt, president of the Palatine Business Men's association announced yesterday. The association is in charge of the NRA drive here.

The pledge reads, "I will cooperate in reemployment by supporting and patronizing employers and workers who are members of NRA." Every household which signs the pledge will be given the NRA consumer emblem to display.

The work of the 24 boys in the local scout troop will be directed through the four patrols into which the troop is divided, Scoutmaster George V. Minibarger stated.

RED CROSS DRIVE IS NOW ON IN
ARLINGTON HTS.*Woman's Club Committee Starts Solicitation; Everybody Asked

Have you a Red Cross sign in your window? Arlington Heights has been planned and committees working under the Arlington Heights Woman's club are directing the Red Cross drive in this village. An effort will be made to give every household an opportunity to join. The Red Cross has done more for Arlington Heights the past year than ever before in its history. Thousands of dollars in seeds was distributed to Cook County farmers early last summer. The Woman's club has been kind enough to assume the responsibility for the drive. It is now up to the public to do its part.

The slogan of national recovery, "We do our part," has been literally accepted by the committees of the Roll Call. In a very real sense, the drive of the nation is upon this Red Cross effort and the capacity and spirit of the American people will be indicated by the results. During the past several years the Red Cross has assumed and successfully discharged extraordinary responsibilities for the relief of a substantial portion of our population who have been forced by the depression to look to more fortunate citizens for the necessities of life. Governmental authorities, federal, state, municipal, county and town, have mobilized public resources to meet the needs directly resulting from unemployment. In thousands of communities Red Cross chapters and Red Cross trained men and women will continue a service which government cannot render as they match their resources against the problems created by depression.

The success of this Roll Call will be a measure of the nation's response to the challenge of the time. It will measure our determination to preserve the spirit of voluntary neighborly service in America. There is work for the Red Cross to perform and we must preserve the finer impulses of our citizens which, through the changing circumstances of American life, have found expression in a genuine personal concern for human distress.

Has not that editor the manhood or the nerve to stand out upon his own and place in print, under his own responsibility the rumors that he says are circulating about the township?

Instead, he hints that there are rumors and he asks why the "paper printed at Arlington Heights" does not "expose" local officials, etc.

Here is our answer: The Herald does not malign the character of a man who is dead; the Herald does not believe a man is guilty until evidence has been produced otherwise; the Herald does not pry into auditor's reports seeking scandal. The Herald has enough faith in the officials of Wheeling township to believe that they are protecting the interests of the taxpayers.

If the editor of the Courier thinks otherwise, why does he not come out in the open and make out-and-out statements in place of back yard gossip. If the Courier has the courage of its convictions, more power to it. Until that paper takes a stand unprotected by a libelous-proof cloak, that paper is no better than a gossiping old maid.

If the Courier really wants to start an expose of Wheeling township affairs, why does it not start? Why is it holding back? Why the hanging back?

This answer to recently published editorials of the Courier is not made as a defense of the policies of the Herald, but rather to clear the atmosphere of poisonous gases that arise from the muck that is contained in some of these editorials.

The only excuse for the tactics of the Courier is "it is the nature of the beast."

SCHWOB TELLS LIBERTYVILLE
OF POLLUTION*Villa Park, Elmhurst are Threatened with Injunctions for Dumping

Last week Libertyville joined the nearby villages under fire by the state for polluting the Des Plaines river and its tributaries, chiefly Salt Creek. Villa Park and Elmhurst have been threatened with injunction suits unless they remedy the nuisance caused by dumping incompletely treated sewage into the creek.

Carl E. Schwob, assistant sanitary engineer of the department of sanitary engineering, state department of public health, told Libertyville officials that immediate action is expected. He intimated that failure on the part of the village to take action would result in the use of legal means by the state department to enforce its demand.

Mr. Schwob is the man who spoke to the Palatine village board at their meeting October 2, declaring that Palatine is one of the three greatest offenders on Salt Creek. The other two are Elmhurst and Villa Park, mentioned above. He stated that the Palatine sewage treatment plant is sufficient for a town of 700, and is at present 185 per cent overloaded.

Since that time the Village of Palatine has had people working off delinquent water bills by cleaning out Salt creek to promote a freer flow of water from the sewage treatment plant southward. At the village board's recent meeting Trustee Schroeder stated that the work had progressed as far as the Langhorst road, south of the village limits.

The State Sanitary Water board is also active in abating stream pollution in other parts of the state. An order has been entered directing the Kerber Packing company of Elgin to begin construction work immediately on treatment works for sewage and industrial waste to stop pollution of the Fox river by the firm.

Some weeks ago the board issued an order directing the City of Peoria to conform to a comprehensive plan of sewage installation to prevent pollution of the Illinois river. Other communities under fire are Monmouth, Litchfield, Olney, and Belleville.

CROWD ATTENDS HEARING ON RESERVOIR

The public hearing on the Water Works improvement drew a capacity crowd in Mt. Prospect Tuesday night and the various possible plans were discussed at great length and detail. The consensus of opinion was difficult to determine after the discussion and expressions, but appeared to be in favor of a surface storage with a capacity of 250,000 gallons.

The discussion centered about the plan to build an elevated tank of 100,000 gallons capacity, as against the construction of a surface storage reservoir. The original recommendation was for a reservoir of 500,000 gallons capacity, which is indicated by the National Board of Fire Underwriters as the ideal arrangement for a community the size of Mt. Prospect. The discussion, however, developed the idea that a smaller storage would meet the present needs at a reduced cost, which would apparently be taken care of with the present water department income without increase in rates. The majority opinion was in favor of taking care of the present needs, as the minimum, and waiting for a future time to construct improvements for future needs.

Some expressions of opinion in favor of the elevated tank showed a feeling that the ground storage would result in stale water. The representative of the engineers, Consoer, Older and Quinlan, explained that there would be a process of aeration in the use of the surface storage, which would help in reducing the iron content which causes the stale odor and taste in the little used mains at certain times. It was further explained that construction of the concrete surface reservoir would be much less than an elevated tank for the same capacity, even with the cost of the additional pumping equipment included, which would be necessary with the future time when it was required, whereas the elevated tank would be limited, and it would be found objectionable to construct a series of steel tanks.

The engineers gave figures based on an expenditure of $25,000 for the entire project, which incidentally was the figure for the large reservoir, and which would be reduced, considerably if the 250,000 gallon storage is provided. But on the (Continued on Page 3)

Let County
Be Cut Up
Dr. Willett

A plan to give greater home rule to all parts of Cook county was proposed last week in the LaGrange forum by Dr. G. W. Willett, superintendent of Lyons township high school and junior college. The plan is to organize present Cook county into three counties.

Under this plan Cook county and the City of Chicago would be the same geographically, with the county's boundaries changed to coincide with those of the city, and the present county government staying with the city. That part of present Cook county outside of the city limits would be formed into two new counties.

Dr. Willett cites several advantages to be gained by both the city and the surrounding territory through this change, which would make the counties smaller in population and so more flexible and efficient. As division lines between the two new counties he proposes North avenue, Roosevelt road or the Sag canal.

"Three counties have been suggested, although four would not be at all impossible, as an investigation of the geography of Cook county will readily show," he says. Dr. Willett goes on to say, "Years ago DuPage county was carved from Cook county, and we doubt if many persons in either DuPage or Cook county would wish the former were now a part of the latter. The laws of Illinois make provisions for the institution of new counties."

"So there is no legal barrier to the suggested possible solution of the apparently unsolved problem of governing the present County of Cook. Suburban and rural Cook county could, under the organization of new counties, proceed to develop local governments while Chicago should be much nearer its goal of 'home rule'."

Tropics Are Not What
They Appear in Movies
States Robert Malzahn

While we here are starting to complain about the increasingly cold weather and raw winds, Robert Malzahn in a letter from Panama complains about the heat in a recent letter to this paper giving notice of a change of address and enclosing remittance to renew his subscription to the paper. Mr. Malzahn is a brother of Ernest and Henry Malzahn of Arlington Heights.

"I would gladly exchange some of the extreme heat down here for a little of your cold weather and snow," he says. Private Malzahn is located with the Headquarters battery of the Second Field artillery at Fort Clayton, Canal Zone.

"These tropical countries look great in the movies," he goes on, "but as a reality anybody can have my share and more of them without asking. Too hot, too much rain and mud, too many malaria mosquitoes and other poisonous insects, not to mention the rest of the slimy and crawling things from centipedes, scorpions, and tarantulas to box constrictors and bush masters."

"These tropical countries look great in the movies," he goes on, "but as a reality anybody can have my share and more of them without asking. Too hot, too much rain and mud, too many malaria mosquitoes and other poisonous insects, not to mention the rest of the slimy and crawling things from centipedes, scorpions, and tarantulas to box constrictors and bush masters."

Mr. Malzahn concludes, "I hope the depression will be dead, buried, and forgotten by the time I can reach civilization."

National Bank Distributes
$14,400 in Dividends
To Depositors

The receiver of the First National Bank of Palatine is distributing dividend checks to the amount of approximately $14,400 to depositors who have filed claims. This is the second such dividend paid by this institution, making a total of 28 1/2 per cent. The dividend came in time for Christmas buying and is greatly appreciated by the depositors.

The liquidation of this bank has proceeded in an orderly manner and to securities have been sold at a loss since the closing.

The dividend checks are not mailed and those who are entitled to them are asked to call personally at the bank.

Gov. Horner Asks
Red Cross Support

While the National Recovery Program of President Roosevelt has started business on an upward trend, restored hundreds of thousands to employment and increased payrolls considerably, there is still much relief and welfare work that must be done during the coming winter months.

Since relief funds from Federal, State and local governmental sources are to provide for the absolute necessities of life for the unfortunate victims of the world-wide depression, another and wide field of social and emergency relief work and aid to the unemployed, still must be performed by such agencies as the American Red Cross.

This year the Annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross will be conducted between Armistice Day and Thanksgiving Day, November 11 to 30. I heartily endorse and applaud the humanitarian and health educational work of this great organization, and appeal to the citizens of Illinois to support it by responding wholeheartedly in every way to the approaching membership campaign.

In the crisis from which we are emerging the American Red Cross has been of invaluable aid to the governmental agencies of our Nation in their efforts to lessen suffering. It has carried relief into the homes of hundreds of thousands of our citizens, assisted service and ex-servicemen and their dependents, reduced accidental and preventable deaths, and promoted good citizenship among the youth of our nation through the Junior Red Cross. It has been a success in disasters in our nation and throughout the world. On its long record of humanitarian service it is entitled to the earnest support of every citizen of Illinois who has at heart the welfare of his fellow citizens, his community and his State.

In humanity's name, I urge the citizens of Illinois to support their local Red Cross chapters and the National program of the American Red Cross by becoming members during this Roll Call period.

Governor

Two Saturday Fires
In Arlington Heights
Garage is Total Loss

Arlington Heights fire fighters were called out twice Saturday. The first blaze, about 8 o'clock in the morning, occurred at the home of Henry Hansing, on South State road. Sparks from the chimney ignited the roof and caused damage estimated at not more than $10. In the afternoon the second call brought the department to the corner of Hawthorne and Belmont streets, where a garage burned. The building was a complete loss. There was no automobile in it at the time.

According to George Volz, chief of the Arlington Heights fire department, the blaze was caused by children playing with matches. The property is owned by a man living in North Aurora and is occupied by William Worrell.

15 per cent Reduction Tax
Suit Open to Small Owners
Who File by Monday

Small house owners still have a chance to secure a 15 per cent reduction on their 1931 tax bill.

In the suit that is being brought by the Chicago Real Estate board before Judge Jarecki, any owner of small homes and up to three flat buildings, can become a party to said suit and benefit by such a reduction provided the case is won, if they file their name and description of property before Monday night at Room 613, County building. There is no cost attached to this procedure.

County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki has gone on record in support of the Chicago real estate board's suit to bring about a 15 per cent reduction in the 1931 tax on Cook county homes. To assure themselves of the benefits of this reduction if the suit is sustained in the courts, every one of the 438,000 home owners in Cook county are urged to promptly file their objections with the Chicago real estate board and become a party to the tax suit. The cost is not one penny to the individual home owner. Only those who file objections as of record in court of objections will be qualified to receive the reduction if it is ordered by Judge Jarecki.

Wheeling Drainage Dist.
Property Owners Are Assessed for Repairs

Seven years ago a special assessment roll of 7 1/2 cents an acre per year for the purpose of repairs to the ditch of the Wheeling drainage district was approved by the court. As the district did not need the money at that time the assessment was not made, but requests for payment are now being mailed to the property owners. The total amount for the seven years, now amounting to 53c an acre which is being asked of the property owners.

Workers from the relief organization, have been doing a lot of work cleaning up the ditch.

PAUL KUESTER
KILLED BY GUN,
BURIED MONDAY*Weapon Drops from Wagon
on Seat, Mortally Wounding Boy

The blast of a shotgun which fell from the seat of the wagon he was driving, brought quick death Friday afternoon to Paul Kuester, 16 years old, whose home was on a farm near Northbrook. Kuester was alone, driving the wagon in a field near his home, when the loaded weapon bounced from the seat. The shot tore open a large artery and death resulted from loss of blood in a few minutes.

A coroner's inquest held at the Karsten funeral home in Arlington Heights Saturday morning, returned a verdict of accidental death through the discharge of a shotgun. The family formerly lived on the Kirchhoff farm near Arlington Heights.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the boy's home and at the St. Peter's Lutheran church at Arlington Heights. Officiating pastors were the Rev. Harry C. Fricke and the Rev. C. M. Noack. Burial was in Union Ridge cemetery near Northbrook. Kuester left his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kuester, a sister, Mrs. Elsie Altenburg, and a brother, John Kuester, Jr. Another brother, Ernest Kuester, was killed in an accident two years ago.

RELIEF LABOR OFFERED TO
ARLINGTON*Mayor Flentie Applies for 100 Men for Three Months Work

Instructions to Illinois officials to transfer 187,000 men from the relief rolls to civil works administration projects were telephoned from Washington yesterday by Governor Horner.

Robert Kingley, the official in charge of public works in this state, estimated 80,000 men will be at work by next Monday. The full quota will be put to work by the first of December.

A special meeting has been called by Chairman Robert J. Dunham of the Illinois emergency relief commission in Chicago tomorrow.

A "reforestation" camp under the direction of the U. S. Department of Interior may be established at Arlington Heights, making available 100 men for three months work. Two telegrams were received by the Arlington Heights village officials within a few hours of each other last week asking that the village make application at once for the number of men needed in public work about parks, and public property. Mayor Flentie called a special meeting of the village board last Friday evening and a committee, headed by Mayor Flentie, went to River Forest the next day to make the necessary application.

While the government is liberal in regard to the number of men to be employed, there is considerable red tape and restrictions imposed and it will be two weeks before it is learned if the application of Arlington Heights will be approved. Mr. Flentie insisted that if men are to be brought to Arlington Heights for this work, preference must be given to local unemployed, who might prefer to reside at home while doing this work. He was assured such would be the case.

The work outlined, which has been sent to Washington for approval is as follows:

Removal of fire hazards, cleaning up brush and subdivisions 45
Shelter for skating pond 20
Painting fire hydrants 25
Planting trees 45
Public Ground Clearing, demolishing old disposal plant and making park 60
Stream improvement 30
Constructing of skating pond 25
Landscaping 70
Total number men days 300

The government not alone pays for men, but their tools, materials, supplies, etc. The village would be asked to furnish a superintendent and foremen for the work. The request from the government came as a surprise to Mr. Flentie, but he and the board have done everything possible to meet the requirements of the Government.

Former Farm Bureau
Official Is Killed

Louis Lange, of Chicago Heights, former secretary of the Cook County Farm Bureau, lost his life Sunday when he left his car in gear as he attempted to crank it. His wife was in the car at the time.

The funeral, held Tuesday, was attended by O. G. Barrett, farm adviser and other officials of the farm bureau.

The Sad Story
Of Hunter's Friend
Who Said 'Shoot'

"He was my friend" said the hunter. And then he told Judge Steinbrink how the friend and he went out to hunt. Near the forest preserve they left their car and the friend found he had forgotten the stock of his gun, but said he'd chase up the game. Two birds flew up. The friend shouted, "There they go. Shoot 'em. And the hunter did. Then Henry Bruns, working nearby for the county, came over to inform the hunter he had just killed two hen pheasants and was going for a ride to Palatine to "see the judge."

But the hunter got even. He borrowed $55 to pay his fine from the friend.

MANY ATTEND CEREMONIES AT
ALGONQUIN RD.*2000 Hear County, State,
Municipal Officials
Make Speeches

A crowd of 2,000 attended the ceremonies opening Algonquin road last Saturday. Among the speakers were officials of the county, the state, and communities on and near the road. The ceremonies were held at the intersection of Algonquin and Mannheim roads.

Preceding the ceremonies a parade of some 150 automobiles assembled at Algonquin and Higgins roads and then proceeded to Mannheim road. Governor Henry Horner, scheduled to be among the dignitaries present, did not appear. Alderman James Moreland of Des Plaines opened the ceremonies with a short talk praising property owners along the road for their cooperation, and the county and state for early completion of the new road.

The meeting then was turned over to Otto H. Grosse, prominent real estate man, who acted as master of ceremonies. He pointed out that the road was a direct inlet to Chicago, connecting the city with the hill region of Algonquin and Barrington.

Other speakers on the program were Emmett Whealan, president of the county board; Clayton F. Smith, county recorder of deeds representing Mayor Kelly, County Commissioner William Busse through whose efforts Algonquin road was started; Marie Plum, county commissioner, and Mayor McKee of Park Ridge.

The next speaker, Commissioner Kinder, stated that construction of the Algonquin road solved a problem which confronted Des Plaines for many years, the traffic jam and one bridge at the intersection of Rizer road, Rand road, Dempster street, and the North-Highway. Following Governor Horner, Mayor Flentie, chairman of the roads and bridges committee of the county board, who said that the county is trying to make a complete system of highways with all gaps and dead ends to be opened soon, and many new roads under survey.

Milwaukee Ave. Speedway
Dangerous to Gas Pumps and City Water Hydrants

The Village of Wheeling may have to put up retaining walls to protect their fire hydrants along Milwaukee avenue. Two of the hydrants were knocked off Monday afternoon by one auto, while the other was damaged by another. Completely demolished two gas pumps in front of the Pieper garage. We read about such accidents in the funny papers, but they actually happen. The fire hydrants are supposedly protected by galvanized tanks filled with soil and set into the ground. The state had prohibited the use of cement for that purpose. A car driven by Chas. W. Laurell, of Chicago, was traveling south and after hitting the first hydrant, continued another 300 feet with sufficient force to knock over a second one. Water, gushed from both hydrants. Laurell was taken to Dr. Larson for examination, who found him in an intoxicated condition.

L. F. Nettland of Chicago fell asleep at the wheel of his car early Sunday morning and crashed into the gas pumps.

INSTALLATION

The Arlington Heights V. F. W. will hold their public installation on Nov. 22, at the Methodist church at 8 p. m. Dunton and St. James street, Arlington Heights.

A very lovely program has been prepared for that evening.

Everyone is invited.

TO DEDICATE
NEW SCHOOL
WEDNESDAY*Oldest School Building in
N. W. Cook County
Replaced

School district 24, known as the Wilson school, corner of Arlington Heights and Rand roads has a new school house in spite of the depression and low prices on bonds, which has practically stopped school building throughout Cook county. The building will be dedicated Wednesday evening, Nov. 22, when Otto F. Aken, county superintendent of schools will deliver the dedicatory address. Included in the program will be the annual Achievement meeting.

The old school building was built over 75 years ago and has been adequate for the district until the recent opening of a subdivision, which today brings about an enrollment of thirty, with every indication that it will increase rapidly.

The school directors attempted a year ago to erect a building, but their inability to sell the bonds at par as is required by the school law, caused a postponement of the plans.

Architect Makes Offer

Ralph Abel, Elgin Architect, who erected the Palatine high school, addition to the Arlington Heights high school and a number of other school buildings in this vicinity, learning of the difficulties of the board, worked out a plan whereby a market was provided for the bonds, and the school has been built at about half of what the cost would have been during the period of high prices.

Local labor was employed as much as possible. The building erected at a cost of only $6,000, is of brick construction, fireproof and modern in every way.

The building is 25 feet by 50 feet in outside dimensions, and the classroom within is 24 by 36 feet in size. It is so arranged that with increasing enrollment a dividing wall can be constructed splitting the one classroom into two each complete in itself.

To facilitate this change there are corridors from outside on each end of the building and stairs to the basement on each end. There is no cloakroom, but on each end of the present room there is a large wardrobe in front of which a curtain will probably be hung. Each of these closets contains rods on which coat hangers can be hung and a shelf for hats and dinner pails.

The room is 12 feet high and has an insulated ceiling. The walls are of solid masonry. Floors are of asphalt tile, and composition blackboards are on three sides of the room. A 16-inch cork panel tops the blackboards. All windows are on the north side, giving indirect lighting. A brick veneer wainscot is below the blackboards and windows.

The seating capacity of the school is 60. Present enrollment in the district is about 30. The school has forced air circulation, furnace heat, and running water. In addition there are electric lights and a private sewerage system in place.

The trustees of the school are: Martin Albrecht, Fred Jaquet, and Henry Brookman. The old building is to be sold at auction on the Saturday following transfer of classes to the new school house.

Plumbing was done by Malzahn and Goedke of Arlington Heights; painting by Sanders and Schaefer, Arlington Heights; plastering by William Meyers, Arlington Heights; millwork furnished by Reinheimer Brothers, Elgin; hardware by Reese Hardware company, Arlington Heights, and lumber by the Heller Lumber company of Arlington Heights.

Miss Lillian Skarlosz is teacher at the school. Trustees of District 24 are Martin Albrecht, Fred Jaquet, and Henry Brookman. The old building is to be sold at auction on the Saturday following transfer of classes to the new school house.

Palatine Woman's Club Reciprocity Day Tuesday

The Reciprocity Day, of the Woman's club of Palatine, is set for Tuesday, Nov. 21, at 2:30 o'clock in the Community room of the high school, at which time they will entertain guests, from neighboring clubs, at a musicale.

The program will be a dramatic presentation of "Peer Gynt," and will be in charge of Mr. Theophil Voeks, of Palatine and the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago, who will bring with him other musical and dramatic talent to assist in the performance. Knowing Mr. Voek's ability as a musician, the club is looking forward to an afternoon rich in enjoyment.

Following the program, there will be refreshments, and Mrs. John K. Gage will be chairman of the hostesses.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS MAN DIES SUDDENLY

Mr. Steve Leth, 60 years, died suddenly Thursday evening while attending the movie at the Arlington theatre.

Observer's Notes

You gathered a wonderful measure of things you long dreamed about. Yet much of your so-called treasure, was of things you were better without.

The glow, the glitter and glamour, that your best years did beguile, have blinded you to the value of all that is most worth while. Have you hoarded mental treasure?

Have you built for spiritual strength?

If so, you possess the measure that will win life's goal at length.

The world has been under a heavy cloud of depression for some time, and why? One is reminded of a child who had a precious coin and three or four bright marbles. He lost the marbles and had only the precious coin left, yet that child wailed, "O, why did I lose my bright marbles and have this dull coin left?"

Our gloom and sadness is not because we have lost our most valuable possession, it is because we lost that which is only bright and effervescent and have left all that of most enduring worth. Our loyal friends, our faith in God, the pure air, the blue sky, and hope, eternal hope.

"Depression" has served to open to us the door to the best things in the world. It has enabled us to rest the real value of friendship. To prove the loyalty and depth of understanding in those who are our neighbors, associates and friends. Why allow such a sham enemy as financial depression to conquer our mental and spiritual valor with the perishable coins of earth?

This is enough for a serious preamble. Better just simmer it down to Sath Parker's philosophy. "Make the most of what you have and the least of what you haven't." Just take an honest inventory of the things you have, mental, spiritual, physical and weight them as a working equipment against things you have not. There is no gift God bestows on man that can equal the mind, the source of all useful invention and beautiful thought.

The mind, the spirit "an inspiration from the Almighty." These unspeakable gifts and the physical powers, what can you lose equal to these? If you have lost money, stores or lands, brace up and begin all anew tomorrow. This is enough argument against depression. Cherish, start in new tomorrow.

Why not a "big brother" club to be boys with our boys? We have long advocated a big sister club, yet no one seems to want to be "it." "Bull Moose" is a Lions or an Elk club seem all right. If our lads choose to revive an extinct creature like the Dinosaur, let them. It is no doubt less dangerous dead than some of the living creatures we cling to.

At any rate who has wisdom to realize the need in our town for oversight, direction and a real brotherly interest in the unemployed in our community? There is need, there is a loud call for a reading and amusement club to meet this need. Who will respond?

Good! Glad to welcome the Vox pop column in the Herald. Now go to it, all you bottled up voxpopers. "Speak and let the worst be known, speaking may relieve you." How are we to know the mind of the people, except they are given expression through our all alive press?

Here we are again, about boys. This time a city boy as viewed by Steven J. Fulton, one of our most progressive school principals. A broad minded man who added the ninth grade to our public school—one I'm sure our boys will remember. Here he speaks: "God help the boy who never sees The gorgeous hue of autumn leaves;

...or hears the music of the breeze; When zephyrs soft are blowing, Who cannot, in sweet freedom fly Where ripening nuts are hanging high; And hear the gentle murmurs nig; Of brooklets softly flowing, God help the boy who does not know Where all the woodland treasures grow; Who never sees the forest glow, When leaves are red and yellow; Whose youthful feet can never stray Mid laden trees of apples red,

For such a hapless boy I say, 'God help the little fellow!'

—S. J. F.

Now comes a scientist and is taking away Jack Frost's credit for painting the beauty of the autumn leaves and that too after McCutcheon's beautiful picture of Jack Frost in the midst of his Indian summer artistry. Next thing they will be claiming it was Al Smith built the N. R. A.

Never mind, Jack Frost, some one is always trying to take the joy out of things, who of us hasn't heard somebody else taking credit for their work and gloriously carrying it off too? Cheer up, Jack Frost, we know who it is pinches our noses and ears these first frosty mornings, and our scientists some of them never heard an earth worm sing.

Speaking of animals, it took a child to discover a new species in our town classified as "Snobs." Don't know just how to classify it, you will know the species when you meet one. Children are keen in their perceptions.

Too often we have quoted the Scripture prophesy of the time when "A child of ten shall be an hundred in wisdom." We had best desist from our criticism of the "rising generation" and see if we cannot learn of them.

Here is this theadworm phrase, "I'll be seen" you comes to us in more classic form. This I just learned the other day from one who is a person of wide experience, a writer and scholar of no small fame. He tells us our bright youngsters have evolved from this slang, "I'll be seen" you. A real classic and you must now at parting from a friend say "Abyssinia."

Ah! Me does all this go to prove that this so called "Rising Generation" are riding head and shoulders above we poor whining dupes of depression? We have built about a shell or coat of commercialism, which shuts out our perceptions of all that is ennobling and beautiful in life. Instead of helping to bear one another's burdens, we put on higher taxes for "Relief funds."

A friend who has an intelligent sense of understanding and like all who are so endowed, has the misfortune of being misunderstood by those less advanced in thought, sent us one of O'Brian's criticisms on "The Hall of Religions" at the World's Fair, where commercialism crowns the sublimity of things most sacred.

Have you noted, it is everywhere? As you gaze on the beautiful and the sublime, "Use Palmolive Soap" in giant type thrusts in between you and the object of your admiration. The pulpit has succumbed to it, "Baked Bean" suppers, "Style Shows" and plays must be announced before the preacher has finished his series on "The Last Words of Our Savior." "The interest on our debts must be raised."

The radio is given over to commercialism. The old "Sunday Evening Club" could not raise the thousands to pay for broadcast raised by "Atlas Beer" or some patent cure all. Our best speakers are crowded off the station. Only our President can command all the lines and "poor man" how long he may be able to reach us, only Alfred Smith can tell.

"The Play's The Thing." Here comes one of our most satisfying broadcasters of news, "The Globe Trotter." Playing he comes steaming in on his train from the ends of the earth. The whistle blows, the bell rings, and as the escaping steam announces he has arrived "Howdy folks" greets our ears, all so welcome, "We are all but children of an elder growth" and seem to be only playing in the most serious problems of life.

Our town, our state, our nation, has a majority of good upright citizens, why do they hide behind the shams and garish ruling of the age? Why are they not awake, alive, to fight for the truth the right and justice of their honest convictions? Why, O why?

"So fight, I not as one that beateth the air." That's just it, what is the use of beating the air with aimless threats, and protes-

Mrs. F. D. Gieseke Celebrates Seventieth Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. F. D. Gieseke was surprised and delighted Saturday evening, Nov. 11, by her sister and brother, Henry and Mary Windheim of Palatine, all her sons and daughters and grandchildren who gathered together in honor of her seventieth birthday anniversary.

Everyone was engrossed in visiting, playing cards, or in buncos until about 1:30. At this hour the elaborate supper was served. Mrs. F. D. Gieseke was more than pleased with her birthday cake baked by her oldest daughter, Mrs. E. Carpenter of Chicago. The cake was decorated with pink roses and "Happy Birthday" inscribed. The upper two layers were decked with seventy pink and green candles; it was perfect.

Each person is looking forward to another happy birthday next year for this dear lady.

tations? If you know you are right, fight nobly for a purpose. It may be to fight foes within your own heart as Paul fought the beasts of Ephesus. Indeed these are often the most difficult beasts to overcome. At any rate, it need be fought for the right. First of all within yourself, then in our community and in the whole wide world, remembering God and His whole universe is with you in the right.

It is good to fight,
When you know, you're right;
And your heart is in it too,
Though the fray be long,
And your foe be strong,
And the comrades you have are few.

Though the battle heat
Brings only defeat,
And weariness makes you reel,
There's joy in the life
That can meet such strife,
And the thrill of glory you feel.

When the wise ones rail,
That you'll surely fail;
It gives nerve to the fighting man,
To toil and try
With a steadfast eye,
To prove to the world he can.

And if you stick,
Till your heart is sick
And lose when the game is done,
It is joy to know
That your weary foe
Paid dearly for what he won.

It is good to dare,
In the face of despair;
Though the last lone chance seems gone,
And to see hope rise
In the angry skies
Like a promise of rosy dawn.

For victory is sweet,
When it crowns defeat,
And you learn this much is true;
It is joy to fight
When you know you're right,
And that God is fighting for you.

RAND ROAD SPIRITUALIST CHURCH, O. O. F. S.

Interest continues to grow in Rand Road Spiritualist church, O. O. F. S., which held its regular Friday evening service, Nov. 10, at the residence of Rev. Dr. C. H. Lynde, on Rand road.

The attendance was larger than usual and several new interested spectators were present.

Services were in charge of Mr. C. E. Dietrich, who opened the meeting and read the 15th chapter of Matthew as the evening lesson.

Mr. William A. Dulisen, of Chicago, was the lecturer. He selected as his theme, "Christ and His Teachings to the Jews." Mr. Dulisen is an eloquent speaker, and held the congregation in awe, while reciting the teachings of Christ to the Jews as the Spiritualists understand them. At conclusion of services he was asked many questions regarding Spiritualism, and gave very lucid and understandable answers thereto.

He will probably speak again the last Friday of November or the first Friday in December.

Mrs. Louella Wait, of Palatine, Ill., presided at the organ, and led in the musical services. She rendered a most inspiring prelude to the services.

Mr. George Hecker, of Chicago, who was born near Palatine, Ill., in the early seventies, and was raised on a farm, was the message bearer of the evening. He espoused the Spiritualists Faith quite a number of years ago, and has developed into a wonderful Medium. He gave several very remarkable demonstrations of spiritual phenomena, and convinced his audience that the continuity of life is a truth—no myth.

At the termination of his message bearing, he was greeted by several of the audience, who recognized him and remembered him in his youth, also his family. He is to be with us again on Friday, Nov. 24.

Mr. Dietrich conducted the spiritual healing treatments, and gave treatments to quite a number.

Meetings will be conducted until the holidays in December. Everybody is welcome. Come and spend a pleasant Friday evening with us. You will enjoy the services and be glad you came.

"Cavalcade" Gives New Significance To Music On Screen

Music in motion pictures will assume a new significance as a result of the elaborate score which provides an interpretative background for the Fox Film production of Noel Coward's "Cavalcade," is the opinion of Louis de Francesco, studio musical director.

The musical background for the picture is symphonic in treatment, although more than forty different airs, ranging from hymns to classical compositions by such masters as Chopin and Mozart, make up the texture of the melodic tapestry, supplemented by much original music written by Coward, Francesco and his staff.

"We set out to make the musical score not only interpretative of the story itself," Francesco says, "but also of the mood of Coward's great drama, and in all modesty I believe we have succeeded far beyond our expectations."

Music Is Artistic Creation

The musical director is especially proud of the passages interpretative of the symbolic cavalcade which he believes add greatly to the dramatic power and movement of the picture.

Francesco and his large staff of aides worked for several months on the "Cavalcade" score and he rehearsed the 100-piece symphonic orchestra for a week before the actual recording was made.

"Cavalcade opens at the Arlington Theater for a two day run next Sunday.

MORE PEOPLE BUY BUICKS THAN ALL OTHER EIGHTS IN ITS PRICE RANGE COMBINED!

BECAUSE BUICK GIVES MORE AND BETTER MILES

People look at the 11 eights in Buick's price range, and buy more Buicks than all of the rest combined.*

There are 600,000 more people driving Buicks than the next most popular car in Buick's price range.

Every state in the Union purchases more Buicks than any other automobile priced above $1,000.*

Five times as many people buy Buicks as any other car priced above $1,000—sies, eights, twelves or sixteens.*

Every city with a population of 125,000 or over buys more Buicks than any other car priced above $1,000.*

*Figures taken from Ford's National New Car Sales Service

Buick wishes to thank the men and women whose demand for Buick cars has made possible this great sales leadership. Such popularity can mean only one thing: People are convinced that Buick gives more and better miles. You and your family will also find Buick the ideal car. A single drive will prove that it gives better miles—and the records show that many Buicks serve dependably for 200,000 miles and more. That's reliability—and economy, too. Remember—there are twenty Buick models—all moderately priced and all available on liberal G. M. A. C. terms. A General Motors Value.

What is the news?
Saturday brought two deaths, two fires;
Things none of us would choose,
So nature's course and sin conspires
To make our seven day news.
Yet best of all, two babies come
To make in our old town their home;
Some good, some bad along the way
But cheerio, good will gain the day.

Yes, Saturday brought two deaths, one from natural causes, and one a deplorable accident.

The same day the fire department was called out to extinguish two fires. Of these you will find accounts in another column of this paper.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Beardsley have rented their home on East Euclid and are going to their property in the south. We all remember the fine nuts that have been produced on their land. We trust the winter may be more kind to them down there, than ours opens today. Many old friends here trust their stay from us may not be for long.

The St. Cecilia choir of St. James church met last week for their regular social evening. There were several added to their choir and they are going forward for practice, preparatory to the holiday extra calls on their choral activities.

Beside Miss Dale, Mr. Reed met in the same school, Miss Abbott and Mr. Garischa. He also met Miss Thaelgaard, now another high school teacher. All the pupils of these former teachers will be glad to hear from them. None of these did more for our high school than Miss Dale.

The next meeting will be held in two weeks with Mrs. Herman.

Wednesday last week the Garden club met with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fitzpatrick. The program consisted of a helpful talk on propagating, planting and pruning plants and shrubs by Mr. Geo. Klehm. Weslyan hospital, where we are hoping for her speedy recovery.

The Woman's club met Wednesday for Reciprocity Day. The Red Cross canvass is on and many other activities were brought up before this session.

While we are enjoying hearty laughs over "The Dutch Detective" at St. John's church the 23rd and 24th, don't fail to realize we are in sore need of some skilled detective right here in our town to ferret out the evidence of crime and lawlessness coming to be a menace to our once peaceful law abiding citizenry.

Mrs. Charles Peterson received word Monday this week that her mother, Mrs. Kampert, had fallen in her home at Barrington, breaking one of her hips. It is a sad case as Mrs. Kampert is no longer young. She has raised a large family. We all remember Miss Kampert, one of our esteemed teachers. Mrs. Peterson at once went to be with her mother in the ordeal of necessary surgery, and at last accounts the patient was as well as could be expected.

It seems almost like election was approaching, the number of little girls soliciting votes on the doll or dolls in a certain window down town to go to the one who gets most votes.

Mr. and Mrs. August Wilke, and Family.

Legion Armistice Dance Big Success

The annual Armistice dance sponsored by the Merle Guild post of the American Legion in Arlington Heights, was held at the Rolling Green Country club last Friday, October 10.

The attendance was the largest of any previous dance given by this post. In addition to a large turnout from the home town many friends were present from Chicago and surrounding towns.

The splendid music furnished by Mr. Askef's orchestra, the effort put forth by Legion members in the sale of tickets and the unusual accommodations offered by the management of the club contributed most toward the success of this event.

Commander Browne prepared a short talk for the occasion, but erred in beginning his address asking if it was the wish of those present to continue these dances at regular intervals. His speech was abruptly ended by shouts of approval and "on with the dance." The Legion will continue these affairs and takes this opportunity to thank those who have cooperated in making the affair a real success. You certainly missed a good time if you did not come—so watch for the next one and plan to be there.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the post was held Tuesday, Nov. 14, and was well attended, the standing committees were announced and started to get busy. After the meeting chow was served which incidentally is a regular thing now.

There will be an executive meeting next Tuesday, Nov. 21; all members are welcome.

The Auxiliary is giving a card party Friday, Nov. 17, at 1 o'clock. A dessert lunch will be served and there will be an individual prize for each table; also a dandy door prize. Tickets are 25 cents.

Mabel Whitmore and Mrs. Pecchia are in charge of the party so please turn out at least ninety-nine per cent (we wouldn't dare hope for 100 per). Phone Mrs. Pecchia for table arrangements. She will be glad to hear from you. Jeanett's phone number is 459-R. There will be a basket of groceries raffled; also, so please don't leave your nickles at home (We need 'em). Oh yeah, by the way, the party will be held at the Legion home at 303 W. Campbell street. I'll be seein' you.

Des Plaines Supt. To Speak at P.T.A.

The regular November meeting of the Arlington Heights P. T. A. will be held at the South school on Tuesday evening, Nov. 21, at 8:00 o'clock. Mr. E. R. Sellack, superintendent of schools, Des Plaines, will give an address on "The Junior High School." Since many parents may find the aims of a junior high school vague in their minds this should be an instructive, as well as interesting address. Our local community Choral Society will furnish the music of the evening.

Many parents who are already members have neglected to pay their dues. Since this is the only financial means of functioning for the organization, it is hoped that many will tend to this neglected duty at an early date.

There is being made by the membership committee a drive for new members. If you are a parent and have never attended P. T. A., come out and find out for yourself the good you, as a parent, may reap from this organization. The aims of the group are so entirely good that barring the personal benefits gained from belonging, we feel certain that the good you will bring the society by your presence and help will make you feel amply repaid.

South Side Breezes

Has anyone told you how many more days there are till Christmas? But you do know that Thanksgiving isn't far away? Doesn't an icy cold wind and a flurry of snow make you thankful for your good warm fire and also start you thinking about Christmas? It does that to us.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fellingham and daughter, Elizabeth of Evans-ton, and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Weiskopf and son, Gilbert of Libertyville, will be Sunday dinner guests at Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Monroe.

Last week-end Mr. and Mrs. Monroe entertained Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Hill of Des Moines, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schaeffer and children visited Mr. Schaeffer's relatives near Matengo last Sunday.

Miss Harriett Barrett and her roommate, Miss Lenora Dix came from Urbana Friday to spend the week-end at the Barrett's and to attend the Illinois-Northwestern game.

Tom Flynn, who attends Notre Dame will spend the week-end with his friend, Bud McKaig and attend the game at Northwestern.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Larrabee and Mrs. M. Schaeffer of Chicago spent Sunday with Mrs. Wm. McKaig. Mrs. Schaeffer was one of Mrs. McKaig's girlhood chums.

The Gleaners circle will meet next Wednesday evening, Nov. 22, with Mrs. George Petersen at her home on North Dunton.

Mrs. Paul Williams expects to be at home for a while, although her friends probably won't care to take advantage and call upon her. She will be nursing children who have chicken pox. What one of the twins has, the other usually gets and Bobby is the one now.

Glad to know that Mrs. Pope is recovering so nicely from her recent illness. She says the time drags heavily and well it might for one who has always been so active in community work.

Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. Scherr, Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Bridges went to Glen Ellyn Wednesday. Their bridge club met with one of the members there.

Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Everett and children are in Oklahoma having been called there by the illness of their mother.

You may be interested in knowing that Mr. and Mrs. Kalisch, who used to live on South Dunton, are now in North Dakota. Mr. Kalisch was a recent caller at the Carpenter's. His son, Howard, had been very ill from typhoid fever, but was quite recovered.

We usually associate the Gardener's Supply with feeds and fertilizers, but with a stretch of the imagination, we can almost smell orange blossoms now. Will tell you more about it next week.

Mrs. Calvin Hoyt and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sauer and children, visited Mr. and Mrs. George Kalath in Chicago, Monday.

MAC SAYS

The Northwest conference season has ended but will attempt to pick the winners of the major college games again this week. Last week we did not go wrong in a single instance except the Indiana-Chicago game and please note that after we picked Chicago we said a tie score would be no surprise. The score was 7-7 with Chicago having the edge. Here are the pickins this week:

Michigan at Purdue; the Boilermakers will beat the Hawks worse than Michigan did.

Minnesota at Michigan; Michigan will win but by a very slight margin. This is Michigan's best chance to lose this season, but we think they will come through to another title.

Chicago at Illinois; Poor Chicago becomes more firmly entrenched in last place.

Ohio State at Wisconsin; Ohio will see to it that the Badgers keep Chicago company in the cellar.

Notre Dame at Northwestern; The Wildcats have a tough team for any one to buck but the law of averages will assert itself soon and we figure that Notre Dame cannot go on playing the great ball that they are without winning. Maybe it sounds rash, but we think the Irish are due to win.

Indiana at Xavier; We don't know anything about the latter team, but the Hoosiers ought to win.

The Season Ends
Another grid season in the Northwest conference is history with Libertyville again on top of the heap. Martin's Wildcats were not only undefeated but held all opponents scoreless to establish a great defensive record. In four conference games Libertyville scored 51 points against Leyden, Arlington, Barrington and Warren while against the three nonconference foes, Woodstock, Deerfield and McKinley, 65 points were registered. This indicates that the Wildcats met stiffer opposition in the conference than outside.

Wildcat Line Strong
Martin's forward wall averaged 181 pounds from end to end and was one of the best ever to perform in the Northwest loop. Hand and Radloff were the ends; Snow and Stickels, guards; Isaacson and Kroll, tackles and Carroll, center. Hand and Snow were outstanding in a line made up of stars at every position. Duddles and Slusser, pony backs, bore the brunt of the ball carrying which enabled the punts to score 18 touchdowns in games. Hand, Snow and Duddles were the only members of the team who had won a grid letter prior to the 1933 season.

Arlington Has Great Team
Libertyville had the best defense in the conference but Arlington had without a doubt the strongest offense. The Cardinals finished second with five wins and one loss but did not really approach their peak until after the defeat at Libertyville. When they really shifted into high gear the Grose coached team moved down Fairview 32-13, Leyden 25-0 and Barrington 30-0. We would like to have seen Arlington and Libertyville tangle in the last three weeks. It would have been some battle and though we don't say Arlington would have won we would wager that the Cards would have crossed the Wildcat camp and have had an even chance to win.

Fast Backfield
Grose had a great quartet of backs. Koelling and Steve Szasz as ball carriers were without a peer in the conference. Frank Szasz was a fine blocker and a heady field general. Rohlwing was a consistent blocker. Brodnan and Hertel were a fast pair of reserves. A light and inexperienced line held Arlington back until late in the season and then it functioned best on offense. We were impressed by the all round play of Klehm at right guard in the three games we witnessed.

Won Seven Games
Arlington won two non-conference shutouts from Chicago Latin and Fox Lake and closed the year with seven wins and one loss. Palatine and Libertyville each scored 13 points and Warren 7 against the Cardinals. Five other games were shutouts. Arlington scored 156 points to 33 for their opponents. A fine record we say.

Leyden Takes Third
Leyden had a fifty-fifth season with three wins and as many defeats. The Eagles had a lineup boasting nine lettermen, but most of them were light and after a brilliant start the team suffered a serious slump of three straight set-backs. Palatine and Barrington fell by identical scores of 12-0. Then Warren and Libertyville tied on the Eagles and administered a pair of 13-0 trimmings. Arlington plastered the worst defeat on the Watson team with a 25-0 score. Leyden came back against Bensenville. A defeat would have meant sixth place for the Eagles but they won 19-0 and capped third.

Had Veteran Team
Camp's line plunging was an important factor in the first two victories and the Asta brothers and Wilson were always dangerous open field runners. In the line Ourada and Fitzgerald, tackles; Puschyzyk and Baade, guards and Capt. Atherton, end, were seasoned veterans from 1932. Lisuzzo at end and Forrest at center were rookies who won their spurs as regulars. Lack of weight in the line and rangy men in the backfield and at the ends to catch passes were handicaps to the success of Watson's team. Leyden scored 43 points to opponents 51.

Warren Finished Strong
Kelton's Warren eleven got off to a slow start but finished strong. A veteran team was hard hit at the start by ineptibility and had to be remodeled and while always strong, did not really hit top speed until the Leyden game. Warren lost to Barrington, Arlington and Libertyville, tied Palatine and defeated Leyden and Bensenville. The "Blue Devils" gave the Libertyville team the toughest fight of the season before the champs won 6 to 0 in the final period. An even battle was lost to Arlington 13-7. Warren rang up 55 points to opponents 45.

Zimmerman a Standout
Warren had a great quarterback in Zimmerman who was one of the finest ball carriers and defensive players in the conference. We pick Zimmerman as the best back of the year in the conference. Zelenko, Snyder and Hook were veteran backs who ably assisted Zimmerman. In the line Kelton had veterans in the Dixon brothers, Brva and Portyke. Beck, Potter, Lisbeth, Young, Witmer, Strang, Nelson, Junge and Becker round out a team largely made up of seniors.

Injuries Hurt Broncos
Barrington won two, lost three and tied one in conference competition but injuries prevented the Broncos from presenting a full lineup of regulars except in two games. Warren and Bensenville were beaten, Palatine tied and defeats suffered at the hands of Leyden, Arlington and Libertyville.

After trimming McHenry and Warren in the first two games the injury jinx jumped in and played havoc with the Barrington team. Coach Clark had a good triple threat fullback in Altenburg, but this hunky backfield was injured most of the season. Conn and Brandt were good backs but the latter missed the games due to injuries. Short was the outstanding lineman with Workman, Witte and Moore deserving special mention. Barrington scored 32 and their opponents 58 points. Four shutouts indicates offensive weakness and this was due largely to the fact that Coach Clark was forced to vump his backfield nearly every Friday due to injuries.

Pirates a Surprise Team
Palatine was one of the teams which upset the preseason dope. Megel's green eleven played every opponent on even terms. The tie scores with Barrington and Warren were not Palatine victories only because of bad breaks at the end of the season. Palatine tied Bensenville, tied Warren and Barrington and lost to Leyden and Arlington in conference games. Bensenville and Niles Center were defeated outside the league. Against all foes Palatine scored 52 points to their opponents' 57.

Green Line Comes Through
Palatine's green line was boasting but twice by Linchrichs, tackle, and Philbin, end, came through in fine style. The new men who won regular positions and will be back next season are Nelson, Engellings, Kruse, E. Hahnfeldt, Heims and Neagle. In the backfield John DePue, 140 pound fullback, proved to be the big ground gainer for the season. Brodnan, veteran tackle, was one of the outstanding men of the conference as a passer and field general. Tudyman and Krambler were other backs who played fine ball. Mangels earned a regular berth late in the season and played like a veteran. E. Hahnfeldt, a rookie, became the best punter in the conference. Only DePue, Linchrichs, Kruse, E. Hahnfeldt and Philbin will be lost for next year from a big squad.

Bensenville Improved
Bensenville deserved a better fate than a record of no victories and the cellar position. Bensenville was prevented from climbing this season only because the play of the conference in general showed marked improvement. Bensenville had the best team in three years and gave every opponent a stiff battle. Johnson's team showed as much improvement as any team in the loop in the course of the season. One touchdown defeats were suffered at the hands of Palatine and Barrington while Warren and Arlington won by a pair of counters. Leyden won the final of the season 19-0 last Friday.

Had Small Squad
Koek was the outstanding Bensenville back. Christensen at center, Capt. Smull, end; Patzke, fullback and tackle, and Jennings quarter were the only veterans Johnson had to draw from. Bensenville had the smallest squad in the conference but put out a fighting, hard working team that was no pushover for anyone.

Miracle Looman' on Des Plaines' Program
Princess Aloma and Kazrah are coming to the Des Plaines theatre for a four day engagement starting Nov. 21. Princess Aloma is the world's greatest psychic and mentalist. She has appeared in the country's largest theatres where Princess Aloma has astounded the audience with her feats of thought transference and psychic power.

One of Aloma's most remarkable feats is answering questions that have been written and retained by the audience—no other person but yourself knows what your question is, yet Princess Aloma will unfailingly call you by name and answer your questions.

Sceptics who doubt Princess Aloma's ability and psychic powers are urged to attend the Des Plaines theatre and test her power and convince themselves.

How Princess Aloma performs these miraculous demonstrations of mental power is unimportant, the fact she does will thrill and entertain you at every performance.

Princess Aloma will give a special matinee for the ladies Friday afternoon at 1:30 p. m. The ladies are cordially urged to attend.

Teachers' Pay Cut
A report from the office of the state superintendent of public instruction shows that the depression has hit the salaries of rural school teachers as well as everyone else. Last year 73 rural teachers in Cook county got salaries of $1,000 or more. This year only 49 attain that sum. In Lake county the number is cut from 65 to 44; in McHenry county from 71 to 21.

Arlington Tydols Lose 6-0, Des Plaines Here Sunday

The Arlington Tydols were handed their first defeat in the last five games played by them Sunday afternoon, when they lost to Sandwiche, 6-0. The Cardinals played a hard fought game in a free scoring affair for Arlington. Arlington's long runs were made possible by some of the season's best blocking. After the Arlington line found the backfield had checked the Barrington forwards, a credit forming interference led by Forszen, Klehm, Gieseke and Rohlwing enabled Szasz and Koelling to show their heels in a sparkling fashion.

Barrington took the field minus their star back, Altenburg. After their second season set by injuries, the climax came when Altenburg was taken to the hospital on Friday night before the game on account of a severe attack of appendicitis. While it was not necessary to operate, Altenburg was rendered unfit for play in this, their final game.

For tough luck, Coach Clark has just about reached the peak of misfortune in the past two years. At no time since the Warren game has he been able to put his full team on the field this year. All credit goes to him and his squad for gamely putting a fighting team on the field week after week, riddled with necessary substitutions.

It is doubtful if Barrington could have held Arlington Saturday even with the redoubtable Altenburg in the lineup. But they might have been able to score, and perhaps hold Arlington to a lower level.

The first quarter was fought out deep in Barrington territory, due principally to some beautiful kicking by Capt. Koelling of Arlington. With a quivering wind at his back he kicked off over Barrington's goal. After taking a short Bronco punt Frank Szasz made a first down on a sweep over left end.

After several unfruitful attacks on the Barrington line Szasz attempted to pass to Koelling, but Conn intercepted the pass and legged it toward the Barrington goal.

He was clear, but Rohlwing and F. Szasz were fleet enough to over-haul him and dump him unceremoniously on the Arlington 26 yard line after a 40 yard run.

Arlington held, and Koelling got off the prize punt of the day, a 65 yard boot which went out of bounds on the Barrington 8 yard line.

Again kicking into the wind, Barrington failed to get out of trouble and Arlington took the ball on their 15 yard line. Here Barrington braced and held as the quarter ended.

The most of the second quarter consisted of two or three tries and then a kick, by each team. However with only three or four minutes left to the half, Steve Szasz juggled a punt on his 47 yard line and finally gathered possession of it to spirit through the whole Barrington team for the lone six points of the first half. On this run Arlington's interference forced quickly until at the last fully half a dozen Arlington players were protecting him on his jaunt.

The second half was hardly five minutes old until Steve again showed his heels to the entire Barrington team. Cutting over right tackle he reversed his field and with Forszen and Rohlwing leading, he nailed two blockers in the broken field he again ran 53 yards to make the score 12-0.

The rest of the third quarter was fought out in Barrington's territory. At the end of this period a 30 yard Barrington punt got up into the wind, blew back toward the line of scrimmage and bounced thru both teams until Forszen gathered it in behind the entire Barrington team on their 12 yard line. From here Rohlwing scored a reverse by simply outrunning the Barrington tacklers.

In the fourth quarter Barrington opened up with passes. One of these Koelling took in full stride and set out for the Barrington goal 70 yards away. One lone tackler barred his way and Forszen neatly dispatched him. Koelling had no difficulty outlegging the pursuit to score touchdown number 4.

CARDINALS BATTLE TWO HARD PERIODS BEFORE FOES WILT

Battering Wears Line Till Touchdowns Gain Supremacy

By J. A. GROSE

Lineup	Barington, 0	Forszen	Etters
Helm	LT	Klehm	Short
Masny	LG	Witte
Bird	RG	Workman
Moore		Muir
Helwig		Latta
Gieseke	RE	Albrecht
F. Szasz	Q	Conn
S. Szasz	LH	Brandt
Rohlwing	RR	Grom
Koelling	F

Substitutions: Arlington—Weisgerber for Forszen; Link for Helm; Milligan for Klehm; Long for Masny; Scolaro for Bird; Mueller for Scolaro; Weidert for Helwig; Mielke for Gieseke; Brodnan for F. Szasz; F. Szasz for S. Szasz; Meierhoff for Rohlwing; Forszen for Koelling.

Arlington's showy football team was forced to battle Barrington's Bronchos for two bitter periods Saturday before Barrington at last began to wilt under the constant hammering of the Cardinals eleven. Arlington eventually piled up a 30-0 score on the luckless Bronchos, but as of Arlington who witnessed the fray will vouch for the fact they were the gamest and hardest fighting foe of the 1933 Cardinals.

For two quarters the highly touted Cardinal backs were smothered by a fast charging Broncho line. Whether it was Koelling's plunges, Szasz's cut backs off tackle, or Rohlwing's reverses, for the most part their gains were of a negative nature.

But eventually Barrington's line was worn down before this constant battering and two spectacular dashes for touchdowns by Steve Szasz, and a longer but hardly so brilliant run by Koelling turned a hard fought game into a free scoring affair for Arlington. Arlington's long runs were made possible by some of the season's best blocking. After the Arlington line found the backfield had checked the Barrington forwards, a credit forming interference led by Forszen, Klehm, Gieseke and Rohlwing enabled Szasz and Koelling to show their heels in a sparkling fashion.

Barrington took the field minus their star back, Altenburg. After their second season set by injuries, the climax came when Altenburg was taken to the hospital on Friday night before the game on account of a severe attack of appendicitis. While it was not necessary to operate, Altenburg was rendered unfit for play in this, their final game.

For tough luck, Coach Clark has just about reached the peak of misfortune in the past two years. At no time since the Warren game has he been able to put his full team on the field this year. All credit goes to him and his squad for gamely putting a fighting team on the field week after week, riddled with necessary substitutions.

It is doubtful if Barrington could have held Arlington Saturday even with the redoubtable Altenburg in the lineup. But they might have been able to score, and perhaps hold Arlington to a lower level.

The first quarter was fought out deep in Barrington territory, due principally to some beautiful kicking by Capt. Koelling of Arlington. With a quivering wind at his back he kicked off over Barrington's goal. After taking a short Bronco punt Frank Szasz made a first down on a sweep over left end.

After several unfruitful attacks on the Barrington line Szasz attempted to pass to Koelling, but Conn intercepted the pass and legged it toward the Barrington goal.

He was clear, but Rohlwing and F. Szasz were fleet enough to over-haul him and dump him unceremoniously on the Arlington 26 yard line after a 40 yard run.

Arlington held, and Koelling got off the prize punt of the day, a 65 yard boot which went out of bounds on the Barrington 8 yard line. Again kicking into the wind, Barrington failed to get out of trouble and Arlington took the ball on their 15 yard line. Here Barrington braced and held as the quarter ended.

The most of the second quarter consisted of two or three tries and then a kick, by each team. However with only three or four minutes left to the half, Steve Szasz juggled a punt on his 47 yard line and finally gathered possession of it to spirit through the whole Barrington team for the lone six points of the first half. On this run Arlington's interference forced quickly until at the last fully half a dozen Arlington players were protecting him on his jaunt.

The second half was hardly five minutes old until Steve again showed his heels to the entire Barrington team. Cutting over right tackle he reversed his field and with Forszen and Rohlwing leading, he nailed two blockers in the broken field he again ran 53 yards to make the score 12-0.

The rest of the third quarter was fought out in Barrington's territory. At the end of this period a 30 yard Barrington punt got up into the wind, blew back toward the line of scrimmage and bounced thru both teams until Forszen gathered it in behind the entire Barrington team on their 12 yard line. From here Rohlwing scored a reverse by simply outrunning the Barrington tacklers.

In the fourth quarter Barrington opened up with passes. One of these Koelling took in full stride and set out for the Barrington goal 70 yards away. One lone tackler barred his way and Forszen neatly dispatched him. Koelling had no difficulty outlegging the pursuit to score touchdown number 4.

The last score came when largely through Albie Brodnan's efforts the ball was placed on the Barrington 5 yard line. A punt was blocked and after Brodnan had tried twice, Helm and Helwig with Bird and Gieseke opened up a hole in the Barrington line thru which Forszen stroled for the final 6 points. Arlington was able to convert none of the points after touchdown.

And so ended a most successful game, and season for Arlington. Starting the year with an entirely green line and a set of veteran backs the line improved until one of the best offensive machines in several years of conference play was developed. All in all a most satisfying year for the Cardinals.

Summary

First downs: Arlington, 6; Barrington, 4 (3 by passes, 1 by Arlington penalty).

Fumbles: Arlington, 3; Barrington, 7.

Passes: Arlington 0 out of 3; intercepted; Barrington, 7 out of 18, 2 intercepted.

Punts: Arlington, 5, average 35 yards; Barrington, 10, average 24 yards.

Penalties: Arlington, 25 yards; Barrington, 35 yards.

Referee: Fendt of Oak Park.

Umpire: Long of Proviso.

In a certain raiser the young Bronchos held Arlington's Seconds to a 0-0 tie. Arlington had two chances to score in the first quarter, but were unable to push a score over. Barrington threatened in the second half, but likewise failed to connect.

Leyden Beats Bensenville In Home Coming

By EARL PANKONIN

Leyden's eagles showed their skill and snap which they displayed earlier in the season, and romped to a 19 to 0 victory over Bensenville before a large Leyden homecoming crowd last Friday.

The Eagles gave their best exhibition of the season to round up their conference standing to a .500 percentage with three wins and three losses. Last year's battle between these two traditional rivals ended in a 6 to 6 deadlock.

During the first quarter Leyden pushed Bensenville back to their 4 yard line, but had to wait until the second quarter before they scored their first touchdown. Midway in the second quarter Wilson of Leyden took the ball over from the 3 yard line for their second marker. Passes were tried for points after touchdown, but both were incomplete.

M. Asta Scores Third Marker
M. Asta brought the Eagles' score to 18 points with a short run around right end from his 5 yard stripe in the third quarter, and Camp added the extra point on a place kick.

The home Leyden backfield started during the game. Wilson and M. Asta especially made large gains through the line, while Camp showed his early season form in punting. The outstanding man of Bensenville's eleven was E. Davis, who punted and did most of the ground gaining.

Statistics
Passes Complete—Leyden, 0; Bensenville, 2. Incomplete, Leyden, 3; Bensenville, 9.

Punts—Leyden's average, 30.8 yards; Bensenville's average, 22 yards.

Punt Run Back—Leyden, total yards, 34; Bensenville, total yards, 0.

Yards Gained From Scrimmage—Leyden, net gain, 179 yards; Bensenville, net gain, 74.5 yards.

Leyden intercepted one of Bensenville's passes, and M. Asta the carrier, ran it back 22 yards, Bensenville's 2 passes were good for 19 yards.

First Downs—Leyden, 13; Bensenville, 5.

Penalties—Leyden, 35 yards; Bensenville, 10 yards.

Fumbles—Leyden, 4 fumbles, one recovered; Bensenville, 2 fumbles, one recovered.

EAST MAINE

Holy Communion will be celebrated at St. Matthews Lutheran church Sunday morning, Nov. 19, in English. Announcement today,
Nov. 17.

Fred Bestman and Martin Gew-eke went down to Bath last week on a hunting trip, planning to return some time this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jaacks were married thirty years last Saturday and although they had not planned to celebrate in a big way, a small group of relatives and friends occasion and a pleasant evening was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Moeller entertained a small crowd of relatives Nov. 12 in honor of their son,
Arnold's seventh birthday.

Mrs. John Ahrens was hostess to her Five Hundred club Thursday evening of last week.

Don't forget the dance the East
Maine P. T. A. are sponsoring at Croatian school hall, Saturday evening, November 25. Admission only 25c and refreshments will be served.

Town clerk and Mrs. Wm. R.
Tagtmeier entertained friends and relatives at an informal gathering at their home Saturday evening.
Cards, bunco and various other amusements were employed to pass the time in a most enjoyable manner with a delicious lunch being served at midnight.

Numerous folk from this vicinity attended one or more of the special services held at Immanuel Lutheran church, Des Plaines, last Sunday in honor of the sixtieth anniversary celebration of that congregation. A marvelous attendance is reported at each of the four services held throughout the day at which inspiring sermons were delivered by the guest speakers who were respectively, Pastor Walter Pieper, Lemont, Prof. Otto Kretz-mann, Springfield, Pastor Theodore Dorn, Chicago and Pastor
Carl Kurth, Evanston. Music for the day was provided by Mr. Walter Lauring at the organ, Concordia College Band, the mixed choir and children's choirs of Immanuel church and St. John's Male chorus of Forest Park. It was a happy occasion for the members of Immanuel and their friends as they gathered in a spirit of joyful thanksgiving to the Triune God, who had so graciously guided and protected their congregation for the past sixty years.

AT THE CATLOW

Fay Wray shares honors with Spencer Tracy in "Shanghai Madness" which plays the Catlow theatre, Barrington, this week Friday night. The story concerns the exploits of a disgraced naval officer who rescues a white girl from a Chinese mob. Chapter 5 of the Buck Jones serial will be an added attraction.
"F. P. L." which is the Saturday feature at the Catlow, dramatizes the possibility of an artificial island floating in the middle of the Atlantic for the aid of trans-ocean fliers. Pathe news, comedy and cartoon are brevities which will be found on this bill.
Janet Gaynor and Warner Baxter in "Paddy, The Next Best Thing" will provide ideal film in-tertainment when they appear at the Catlow Sunday and Monday.
"Paddy" is set against the gorgeous beauty of an Irish coastal town, where a once influential family is reduced to circumstances that Janet tries to improve. A Mickey Mouse cartoon, comedy, news and community singing will round out the Sunday-Monday program.
The feature for bargain night at the Catlow, next week Tuesday will be "Flaming Gold," an all-well story, with Bud Boyd and Mae Clark playing the leads. A three-day run of "Too Much Harmony" will follow. The cast is headed by Bing Crosby, with Jack Oakie, Sheets Gallagher and Lilian Tash-man featured. "Too Much Harmony" is easily the top-notch musical of the screen at the present time. It is gay with humor, tuneful with new songs and colorful in costumes and chorus.

SKATING PONDS PLANNED BY IMPR. ASSN.

Three Sites Under Consideration; Want to Start Work Soon

The discussion before the November meeting of the Improvement Association was the preparation of skating ponds for the children of the village—and their parents. A report made by A. C. Dresser, chairman of the committee named to investigate the matter, indicated that the village would supply the required water, providing a proper method was worked out for making the ponds.

3 Locations Planned
The plan developed includes three skating ponds. One of these will be on the baseball diamond at Busse and Owen. Another will be in the Prospect Manor section, on a location to be chosen. The third will be on the south side, on a location to be chosen. The committee was enlarged to include at least three members for each of the three locations, and these sub-committees are to locate the grounds, and arrange to prepare for the water by leveling and banking so that when cold weather comes in earnest, the locations will be ready. The committee for the east side is made up of A. C. Dresser, L. C. Risberg and Walter Bach. The Manor committee consists of V. F. Weber, R. Mandt and E. D. Baskin. The south side committee consists of S. Hoods, H. C. Roose, and E. C. Bolton.

To Hold "Bees"
It was suggested that a call would be issued in each district, possibly next week-end, for a general "gang-party" to work on the ground preparation, which would take very little time if several work at it. The preparation for the actual pond includes the sprinkling of the ground when there is frost in the ground, so that a coating of ice will be formed before the plot is flooded. Previous attempts have failed because the ground was flooded without coating with ice, and the water did not stay in the pond. It is expected that the ponds thus formed will be the source of much community fun for all ages during the winter months when there is little chance for outdoor sports.

Plans were made for a large meeting of the Association in December.

Vets to Have Public Installation
Prospect Post No. 1337, and the Ladies' Auxiliary will hold a public installation of officers at their club house in Mt. Prospect, Ill., on Thursday evening, Nov. 25, 1933, 8 p. m.

This installation is open to the public and each and everyone is invited.

Past Commander Robert Quinn of Prospect Post No. 1337, Veterans of Foreign Wars, is to be the installing officer.

After the installation there will be free dancing to help make an enjoyable evening.

This will be a full ritualistic installation which, in itself, is very impressive.

The installing officer for the Ladies' Auxiliary will be Mrs. Billmeyer of Rockford, Ill., state department president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, State of Illinois.

Remember, the date and come and help us to make this affair a success. Free entertainment and free dancing after the installation for you, all you have to do is present.

The Committee
V. F. W. Auxiliary

The Ladies' Auxiliary to Prospect Post No. 1337, Veterans of Foreign Wars met at the home of Mrs. Arthur Flesch this week Wednesday. We wish to thank those donating men's clothing to be taken to the Speedway, Edward Hines Jr. hospital. We are still accepting the old clothes needed so badly by the disabled and unemployed veterans at that hospital. Perhaps you, too, have some overcoat or other men's clothes you wish to dispose of. Even though they need repairs or must be cleaned, they are welcome as this can be taken care of by the organization. Just call Mt. Prospect 1173-R if you have anything.

The ladies will hold a card party at the V. F. W. clubhouse on Friday afternoon, December 8.

The Armistice morning program sponsored by the local V. F. W. and delivered by Reverend J. E. A. Mueller of St. Paul Lutheran church was largely attended last Saturday in the St. Paul school auditorium.

Mascouten Camp Fire Girls
The Mascouten Camp Fire Girls were much disappointed last week because the weather was so unfavorable for the roller skating party, that was scheduled. You know we may have melted if it had gone out doors, well anyway, we would have been "all wet" as it was raining. We do hope that the weather will be more pleasant for our next skating party.

However, we met despite the rain and were informed that at Mrs. Grabel's request we were to perform a Council Fire for the benefit of a beginners group at Wheeling.

This week Thursday we will start our Christmas gifts. Please bring all necessary equipment and meet at the Community hall at 7:30.

Smallpox Once "Child Pox"
Dr. Walter B. Cannon of Harvard says: "It is not generally known that in former times smallpox was essentially a disease of children, so much so that it was called 'child pox'."

Rateike-Samuel Wedding Pretty Ceremony

A beautiful wedding took place at the St. Paul Lutheran church last Saturday, Nov. 11, 1933, when Miss Emma Rateike, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rateike was married to Mr. Walter Samuel of Forest Park, by Reverend J. E. A. Mueller.

The groom was accompanied by his brother, Howard Samuel.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Arthur Israel and Mrs. Paul Arndt, sisters of the bride. They wore pearly blue velvet gowns with slippers to match and pink tea roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Della Rateike, wore a green velvet gown with slippers to match and tea roses.

The ushers were brothers of the bride, Charles, Jr., and William Rateike.

The beautiful bride in white velvet and wearing a tulle veil, cap effect, entered the church on the arm of her father.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Samuel will reside at 22 N. Wille street, Mt. Prospect.

P. T. A. HOT LUNCHES TO START SOON

Meals to Cost Only 8c Unless Food Prices Advance

Tuesday afternoon the luncheon chairman recently selected by the Board of the P. T. A. met and discussed the working plan for the winter hot noon lunch.

It was decided to start serving on Monday. Menus were discussed and many ideas brought out growing out of the experience of the past two years. One decision made was not to serve milk with soup, but to make it up in a dessert.

Most children did not drink their milk on soup menu days.

An effort was made to introduce more vegetables and less of the starches.

The price will be the same, 8c until further notice. If, however, it is found that food prices are a great deal higher and a deficit occurs, an advance will be made to cover expenses. It is hoped it will not be necessary to raise the price.

The menus following give variety and as there are ten menus and ten chairmen, the schedule will run for two school weeks and then repeat.

Lunches may be paid for each day at 8c or in advance for the week at 40c. Especially in the case of younger children it is advisable to pay in advance for the week, since money is often lost by the children. Chairman and members of committees are advised to save the printed menu for reference. For further information, please call Mrs. E. D. Baskin, president of the Parent-Teacher association.

Chicago Has "Cradle Song"; Shares Honors With Big Stage Show
Due to a switch in bookings, "Cradle Song," Dortha Wick's American public, has been postponed to a Nov. 17th opening at the Chicago Theater.

"Cradle Song" gives Dortha Wick an opportunity to record almost every expression of feeling, every mood, every emotion known to womanhood. As a founding left to the care of nuns, she grows to radiant girlhood, a totally incongruous bit of color, behind the grey walls of a convent. Somehow the call of life seeps in from the shut-out world, and the girl is torn between two loves, one of loyalty to the convent nuns, all of whom she calls "mother," and another to the new found devotion to the nameless force that urges her to abandon her religious environment for the outer world.

On the stage of the Chicago, Donald Novis, radio's famed silver voice, plays a return engagement. Leo Carrillo, villain and at times hero, of countless motion pictures, will share the billing honors with Novis, in his first personal appearance in some time.

MOVIES
Lillian Harvey Makes U. S. Debut in "My Weakness" at Roosevelt

Lillian Harvey, diminutive blond Continental actress, makes her bow to Hollywood film circles at Fox's "My Weakness" current at the Roosevelt Theater.

In "My Weakness," Lillian is a shop girl who sets out to win a rich husband. Taking her cue from the theme song of the picture she "Gathers Her Lip Rouge While She May" and soon finds herself surrounded by a triangle whose sides are composed of Lew Ayres, Charles Butterworth and Henry Travers. Fox has given "My Weakness" an unusual musical treatment.

Chatterton Plays 'Female' In McVickers Drama
Russ Chatterton plays a new and unusual role in her latest picture, "Female," which occupies the McVickers screen this week. Leaving behind the touching, tearful roles such as she played in "Madam X," as well as the ultra-sophisticated characterizations of "The Rich Are Always With Us," Miss Chatterton now brings us a woman of dual personality.

As Allison Drake, the president of a huge motor plant, she rules the men who work for her with the well known hand. However, when the long day of labor is over, she becomes predominantly feminine with a "Catherine-the-Great-of-Russia" complex on what constitutes love.

A distinguished cast supports Miss Chatterton in "Female." George Brent, her husband, by the way, is teamed with her again, and has the leading male role.

EMPEROR JONES
Brings Paul Robeson's Great Voice to U. A.

Paul Robeson, he of the remarkable voice, and the no less remarkable histrionic ability, has finally made a film record of these qualities that have kept him before opera and concert audiences for the past several years.

Seldom does a new-comer to the screen have as happy a selection as the vehicle which presents this renowned colored artist to his new public. "Emperor Jones," considered by many authorities to be Eugene O'Neill's greatest play, comes to the United Artists Theater this week, portraying the weird story of the Pullman porter who rose to throne.

"Footlight Parade"
Starts March at The Oriental
The musical to set the standard for all musicals, is the tuneful, star-sprinkled, Warner Brothers special, "Footlight Parade," current at the Oriental Theater.

Ruby Keeler has a surprising partner in Jimmy Cagney who dances in a manner totally inconsistent with his past performances as a rough, tough, face-slapper.

Joan Blondell, Guy Kibbee, Dick Powell and Frank McHugh again wise-crack their various ways through some of the most amusing situations ever filmed.

FARMERS MEET TONIGHT, PLAN FOR FIRE TRUCK

Rural Fire League Session in Palatine Village Hall at 8 p. m.

Another disastrous farm fire last week, destroying a barn filled with hay and three outbuildings, at the Stratford farm near Schaumburg, a total loss of some $12,000, has accentuated the need for the formation of a rural fire protection league. This is the second fire to occur in the territory to be protected by the league since plans for its formation and solicitation have begun.

Just a month ago a home in the Smith and Dawson subdivision was burned to the ground, a loss of $3,500. This was also in the territory which the Palatine Rural Fire Protection league plans to serve.

A meeting of all farmers interested in the formation of the league is to be held in the Palatine village hall at 8 o'clock tomorrow night. Everyone who has no fire protection has been urged to attend. Farmers and people living in the subdivisions outside of village limits are forming the league to provide themselves with fire protection.

A recent news dispatch from Kaukauna, Wis., tells of the burning to death of four of the eight children of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Exers, farmers living near that town. The children ranging in age from 11 months to 11 years, were trapped in the upper floor, while those downstairs escaped and ran for aid. The parents were away at the time.

Fire Department Called. Rescuers, armed with nothing more than a ladder, were driven away from the building by the flames. The Kaukauna fire department was called, but did not respond because the call was outside the corporate limits.

The fire department of Palatine, and the departments of nearby villages have similar rules. Palatine sends the old truck, which is not equipped to throw a stream of water, having only chemical tanks, and whose speed is too slow to get to a country fire very quickly. Some other communities require farmers to sign contracts to pay certain fixed sums when the department has answered a call.

Low Costs. Under the proposed plans of the Palatine Rural Fire Protection league, every farmer having 10 acres or more land is asked to pay $10 and each rural resident having less than 10 acres $5. This fee will be the only cost for the life of the truck—more than 20 years. The village has agreed to house the apparatus free, and the Palatine fire department has agreed to man it with men trained to handle the equipment.

Insurance companies are cooperating in putting the idea across, and President Emmett Whealan of the county board has favored the contribution of money by the county in return for protection to Camp Reinberg and the Deer Grove Forest Preserve property.

Fred W. Porep is president of the league, John H. Krefz is secretary, and William Freise is treasurer. Solicitors have been signing up members for almost a month, and the carrying through of the project is practically assured.

August F. Rosenwinkel Dead at Palatine Home; Was Born Near Addison

Funeral services were held yesterday for August F. Rosenwinkel, a farmer near Palatine for almost 40 years, and who lived in town since 1924. Mr. Rosenwinkel died Sunday at his home at Hale and Lincoln streets. He was 68 years old.

Mr. Rosenwinkel was born August 13, 1865 near Addison, south of here. In 1891 he married Miss Minnie Tinkle. They had seven children. Mrs. Rosenwinkel died in 1920.

He leaves three sons, Henry and Bill at Addison, and August living at Elmhurst, four daughters, Mrs. Anna Moeller of Addison, Mrs. Alvina Schroeder, Mrs. Emily Moehling, and Miss Minnie Rosenwinkel living in Palatine, and 23 grandchildren.

Capacity Crowd Attends Public Hearing on Water Reservoir, Impr. Project

(Continued from Page 1) basis of the original plan, it was estimated that the grant of money from the government would be $6,000, leaving a balance of $19,000 to be covered by water bonds. On the basis of paying this off in 20 years, in equal payments, the annual cost would be $1,300, which would have to be paid from water department revenue. If the time for repayment is extended, to 25 years, the annual payment would be reduced to approximately $1,000. On the basis of a total cost of $15,000, instead of $25,000, the annual payment on a 20 year basis, would be about $800, which appears to be well within the present income of the Water Department.

Present Wells Adequate. Questions were asked about the reliability and capacity of the present two wells, and the possible need for more or deeper wells in the near future. The engineers opinion was that, with adequate storage capacity so the wells could be pumped at their maximum rate, the present wells will take care of a population of 3,000.

There was some discussion about the possibility of including in the present improvement some form of water treatment which give soft water to the users of the village. An engineer's analysis was presented and discussed. It was estimated that, on the basis of an average daily use of 60,000 gallons per day, with a maximum use of 200,000 gallons, a softening plant would cost approximately $15,000, which would involve an expenditure of about $700 per year for repayment of the loan within 30 years. This amount represents to each user of water, on the average, an increase in their water bill of about $2.50 per year. This figure is on the basis of a total billing of the Water Department of $5,500, given at the last meeting of the Village Board, and with a total of 350 homes served with water.

Water Softening Plan. This plan of water softening was compared with a total cost to the Village, using individual softeners, at $150 each in 300 homes, amounting to a total expenditure of $45,000. In addition, it may be expected that the life of the domestic softener would be less than the municipal plant which would increase the cost of the domestic arrangement over a long period. The plan was not encouraged, in the discussion, due to the expenditure involved and the feeling that such a project would be considered a luxury, at a time when expenditures are being limited to necessities.

It will be recalled that the suggestion originally made by THE REVIEW for a municipal Water Works improvement was for a treatment plant. This suggestion was made with the idea that the cost of such a plant, shown by the engineers estimate, to be about $250 per year per home would be more than compensated for by the saving in soaps, water softeners and cleaners which are now required. Although a number of citizens are in use, the softening would make them unnecessary, and the expense would be hardly more than that incident to the maintenance of a cistern. Experience, we believe, would support the belief that led to the presentation of the suggestion regarding softening, that every housewife in the Village spends more than two dollars and a half in strong soaps and chemicals for washing, to make ordinary soap effective.

Soft Water Preferred. In connection with the discussion of softening of water, it was brought out that experience at Western Springs, where a municipal system was recently installed, shows that the softening of water is preferred in taste to the untreated water. It was also suggested that, with soft water, the desirability of the Village as a home site would result in increased property values, which would relieve the holders of large amounts of real estate, by making this property saleable.

The immediate problem before the Village Board was the appropriation of $70, to cover the cost of preparing data required by the Federal Public Works Administration with an application for aid. It is of course necessary for the Board to determine the nature of the plan to be built, or applied for, and the discussions were considered of assistance in bringing out several points of view which the Board will take into consideration when acting on the matter at their next meeting.

LOCAL ELECTRIC RATES NOT STATE'S HIGHEST DECLARES SERVICE CO.

Denial that residential electricity rates charged by the Public Service company of Northern Illinois are the highest in the state as might be inferred from certain testimony given before the Illinois Commerce commission recently, is contained in a recent letter from the company.

The letter states that 1,567 communities in the state receive electricity service, and 321 of these are served by the local firm. Of the 1,246 towns served by other companies, 800 have higher rates, and 120 rates substantially the same as are charged here.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE

Do not forget the 27th Annual Christmas Seal Sale which will begin the day after Thanksgiving. We benefit directly, through our Christmas Seal nurse, for every cent we send in to the Chicago Tuberculosis Institute. Contributions made elsewhere, while they help the cause in general, do not particularly help the work of your local Public Health committee. So we ask you to keep it in mind to make your contributions through the local committee, rather than through some Chicago organization.

Vilas County Legion Planning Memorial As Community Center

By ALMA E. KLEHM. The fourth annual banquet and membership round-up, given for the American Legion and Auxiliary members of Vilas County, by Frederick Walsh Post No. 114, of Vilas county, was held November 2, at the Community House in Land o' Lakes, Wis.

The members from Eagle River took over the obligation of furnishing and preparing the banquet served to 100 persons. The venison steaks prepared and served with the other food, side dishes and pie, brought in by the Eagle River Auxiliary, were a real treat.

Commander Handlos read a request forwarded to the post by Dept. Adjutant Gill Stordock, for assistance to make possible the "Aerial Membership Round-up" to pick up membership cards at Eagle River and fly them to Waussau, Sunday, Nov. 12, making stops en route at Rhinelander and Tomahawk. Legionnaire Dr. O. R. McMurray accepted the responsibility of complying with the request.

Miss Ida Petersen, local teacher, was introduced and sang two songs. She was accompanied by Mrs. Christ Amundson, Legionnaire Dell McGregor followed with a song, and demonstrating his whistling ability. Two numbers played on the "largest concertina in the world" carried in by three men was played by the robust Mr. Fox of Hawk Creek, Eagle River.

"The members of the legion were then directed to convene in the assembly hall and a meeting was called to order by the commander to conclude the business of selecting a site for the proposed Memorial building for Vilas county and the ways and means of financing the same.

The site selected is in Eagle River on the south side of the river on the east side of highway No. 26, at the bridge. Not only a convenient location, but a beautiful setting for a nice building.

The thing that makes it possible for Vilas county Legionnaires to undertake the erection of this Memorial building is the fact, that they can get the whole sum needed at once in the form of a loan from the federal public works fund.

The upkeep of the place must be forthcoming. The sponsors hope to get some donations and also use the place as a tourist information bureau and the like. Besides this there is a plan to have persons who are not legion members, become associate members, who could come and enjoy all the social privileges of the legion home by paying annual dues. This extension of hospitality would be welcomed and promote a feeling of good fellowship, and fill a long felt want for a community center in Vilas county, but for summer-homes and multi-tudes of tourists sojourning at resorts or touring in this beautiful county annually. Although they are lovers of nature and come here to seek the wholesome blessings nature has so bountifully provided they crave the social side of life and will appreciate having such a place as the legionaires hope to provide, to go to.

Guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hillman of Land o' Lakes and Miss Alma Klehm of Niles Center, Illinois, an auxiliary member of Niles Township Post.

Before adjournment, Mr. Fred Friese was appointed chairman of the dance committee, for dance to be held Nov. 11 at the Northwoods Tavern on S. H. No. 63.

Altogether this was an inspiring evening, and the sturdy legionnaires there, were not only willing to plan this undertaking, but are willing to take pick, shovel, trowel, saws and hammer and do the actual labor thereon. Under the guidance of their purposeful commander J. F. Handlos, who so tactfully carried them along over the bumps with his witty sense of humor.

I am having a delightful time here with the Handlos family in their Land o' Lakes home. The duck season is on and duck dinners prepared by a good cook are very satisfying. The small lakes here are frozen over, but are open again today. Several inches of snow cover the ground. Deer are plentiful in spite of the wholesale slaughter of the beautiful creatures last season. The season is closed this winter.—Alma Klehm.

The Palatine P. T. A. meeting Tuesday was opened by the Girl Scouts advancing the flag while the audience sang, "The Star Spangled Banner." A treat followed by the quartet from Arlington Heights singing three selections which were very enjoyed. All stood in observance of Armistice Day while Howard Wittgenblaw blew "taps."

Miss Lottie Hart, our librarian, was the speaker of the evening and had prepared a very fine exhibit of books to illustrate her talk in observance of book week. Growing up with books we had the pleasure of seeing a very small picture book printed before 1790, and hearing the story of the real Mother Goose and many other famous characters.

The opportunity to examine some of the new books in the exhibit loaned by Marshall Field & Co., and many expressed surprise at the fine quality of the books in the ten cent exhibit.

School Boy Patrol Protects Children At Busy Crossings

Every day, even though swirling snow or chilling winds may make even grownups hurry for shelter, a half dozen pupils stand guard to make their schoolmates and the younger children safely cross the streets and railroad tracks. They are the members of the school boys safety patrol.

Under the direction of John Reuser, principal of the school, the patrol, one of the many similar groups formed under the sponsorship of the safety department of the Chicago Motor club, was organized at the opening of school last fall. Since then the boys have been at their posts. The local police department has cooperated in the movement.

Three of the boys are located at railroad crossings, and the other three at street intersections crossed by the most children in their path to the school. The boys must be on duty, displaying their white Sam Brown belts and dressed to stay on their posts, at 20 minutes of 9 o'clock in the morning, and stay on duty until the hour.

Escort Smaller Children. At 11:30 o'clock, when the lower grades are dismissed, the three boys whose posts are at the railroad tracks escort the smaller children in a group across the tracks, then stay there to see that the older children also get across safely. The other three patrolmen go to their posts 5 minutes before classes are dismissed. All stay at their posts until the last schoolmate has passed.

At a quarter of 1 o'clock they again go on duty, staying until 10 minutes after the hour. Classes begin at 1:15 o'clock. At 3 o'clock, when the lower grades are dismissed for the afternoon, patrolmen again escort the children to the railroad tracks, and soon after their comrades also come on duty to see the remaining pupils safely across streets and tracks.

The patrol is at the head of the safety movement in the entire school. Its purpose is to prevent crossing accidents. The patrolmen keep the children from crossing streets except at certain designated crossings, and keep them from crossing in the middle of the block or diagonally at the corners. Violators are reported to the principal.

Keep Children Back

The boy patrolmen keep back the children until the crossing is clear. Their purpose is not to direct traffic, but should an auto approach while children are in the act of crossing the street, the patrolman on duty may raise his hand to stop the car and protect the school children.

Patrolmen are appointed by the principal from the seventh and eighth grades. The captain is chosen from the eighth grade. Each boy must bring written permission from his parents before he can go on duty. The captain is not on duty on any post, but supervises the work of all patrolmen and calls out substitutes to take the place of any boys who may be absent from duty.

Jack O'Brien is captain of the patrol. The patrol is divided into two parts, six boys to each part, and the two groups alternate at two week periods of duty.

Group Now on Duty. The group which started their two weeks Tuesday are Jack Roberts, located at Benton and Wood streets; Arnold Drewes, Wood and Hale streets; Elmer Bruns, Plum Grove avenue and Wilson street; John Donovan, Plum Grove avenue and the tracks; Charles Folz, Bothwell street and the tracks; and Owen Nangle, Brockway street and the tracks.

The group which served during the previous two weeks are Clifford Wente at Benton and Wood streets; Robert Stewart, Wood and Hale streets; Bill Thompson, Plum Grove avenue and Wilson street; Walter Clark, Plum Grove avenue and the tracks; Harold Mayer, Bothwell street and the tracks; and Alvin Drewes, Brockway street and the tracks.

Substitutes, who may be called into active duty at any post at any time, are, Geo. Kuhn, Robert Kraft, Ray Heiden, and Bill Birks.

There was no patrol at the Palatine school last year, but in the 1931-32 academic year, the school received a banner for "meritorious service in teaching street safety and maintaining a school boys patrol." In addition to organizing the patrol and furnishing it with equipment, the Chicago Motor club provides the school with monthly safety posters teaching timely lessons for street safety.

Attendance Increasing At Training Courses For Boy Scout Leaders

The three training courses being conducted under the supervision of the Scoutmasters Training committee of the Northwest Suburban Boy Scout Council are proving popular with troop leaders and other men interested in boys and boys' work as the attendance at the second session held last Wednesday night showed considerable increase over the opening session a week ago. The handicraft group was the greatest drawing card, as a representative of the Handicraft Hobby Service and Supply company of Chicago presented their large selection of various crafts in which boys and leaders might be interested. Practically every type of craft within the scope of boys work is included in the subjects and materials that are available. A. R. Crawford of Niles, a member of the troop committee, is the Scoutmaster of this group.

Learn Rudiments of First Aid

The other two courses, Approved Scoutmastership, under the direction of E. J. Anderson and Elementary Scoutmastership, being supervised by Scout Executive Nimtz, are both fairly well attended and the purpose of this instruction is to give leaders and prospective leaders who may be taking the course, the fundamentals of troop operation and the Scout program together with ample instruction on methods of teaching the various scout requirements for advancement.

The major emphasis of the work in Mr. Anderson's group last Wednesday was on first aid. Next week the Elementary group will occupy most its time with this important subject, instruction and demonstrations are being handled by Assistant Scoutmaster R. D. Grubb and his group of scouts from Troop 15 of N
